Director: Susan Hollingworth

Susan studied at The Royal Northern College of Music. In 1990 she was awarded a Churchill fellowship for her work with choirs. In 2008, she won The BBC Choir of the Year with The Scunthorpe Cooperative Junior Choir. In 2013 she received a Royal Philharmonic Award for co-directing Cycle Song for the Cultural Olympiad. She directs Sine Nomine International Touring Choir, The Lydian Choir and Scunthorpe Choral Society. She has conducted choirs at The Presteigne Contemporary Music Festival, the Three Choirs Festival, The Albert Hall, The Sydney Olympics and various festivals abroad. She is in demand as a conductor trainer, workshop leader and choir trainer.

Susan is a vice-president of the Association of British Choral Directors and was given an honorary doctorate from the University of Bishop Grosseteste for her work in music education. In 2019 she was awarded a British Empire Medal.

Organist: Graham Eccles

Graham first studied the organ at Worksop College in Nottinghamshire, gaining his LTCL and ARCO diplomas. He subsequently studied at the Royal Northern College of music, graduating with an upper division diploma, whilst also achieving the ARCM and FRCO diplomas.

Graham has been Assistant Organist at Chester Cathedral, Organist and Master of the Choristers at St Asaph and Bangor Cathedrals. Now a freelance musician, he is a visiting tutor in organ at the Bangor University, Conductor of Colwyn Bay Choral Society and of St Asaph Choral Society, and is accompanist of Chester Music Society Choir. He has played many times with the RLPO and Hallé orchestras.
